

Study Abroad Program Guide for FOX SCHOOL of BUSINESS STUDENTS

With so many study abroad programs, finding a program that's the right fit can seem overwhelming. Although this guide is not exhaustive, it is designed to provide you, a Fox student, with an overview of some of your options. As you will see, knowing the types of courses that are best for you to take abroad is important when determining your options, so meeting with your academic advisor is a key step early on in the process (more on that below). But first, here are some options.

	TEMPLE PROGRAM OPTIONS	EXTERNAL PROGRAM OPTIONS You can participate in programs organized by other U.S. universities, or you can apply directly to an institution overseas. The Education Abroad resource library has information on other schools' programs, and our advisors can direct you to additional resources. To participate in an external program/direct enroll, you must complete Temple's External Program approval process.
I plan to take at least some major courses while abroad.	Temple University Rome During the semester, Temple Rome offers business coursework in International Business and Economics. International Marketing is offered during the fall semester, and Global Strategic Management is offered during the spring. Internships are also available. In the summer, Temple Rome typically offers two business courses, which vary from year to year. In 2014, the tentative offerings are Accounting 2101 and IB 3101. Temple University, Japan Campus TUJ, Temple's branch campus in Tokyo, offers lower level business courses in Accounting, Economics, and Human Resource Management. In addition, Asian Studies 2511 I Intro to Asian Business may be of interest to Fox students. Internships are also available. Temple Exchanges Through reciprocal exchange agreements with the following universities, Temple students can exchange places with students from these universities for a semester or academic year. Some programs require sufficient proficiency in the host country language to participate; see our website for more details. I don't plan to take any major courses while abroad. Instead, I plan to fulfill other academic requirements.	Visit Temple's Education Abroad website for information about all of Temple's programs abroad.	External programs are available in almost every country of the world.
I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements while abroad.	By successfully completing a Temple study abroad program, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement. In addition, Temple Rome offers one course that fulfills the GenEd Arts requirement, and Temple Japan offers a few GenEd courses each semester.	By successfully completing an approved external study abroad program, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement. Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements. GenEd requirements which are most commonly found abroad include Arts, Human Behavior, and Race and Diversity. As part of Temple's External Study Abroad Approval process, GenEds, like all external courses, must be evaluated and pre-approved.

WHAT ARE MY NEXT STEPS?

- If you haven't already attended a mandatory FOUNDATIONS INFORMATION SESSION in Education Abroad, sign up for one today.
- Meet with your ACADEMIC ADVISOR to discuss how and where study abroad might fit into your academic plan.
