Not sure what to do with your major? No worries! Linking a major to a career is a challenging process for many undergraduate students. Below you will find information to help you start the process.

International Business Career Path Options

International Marketing
Conduct international market research, lead product development, manage global or local lines of products and decide which marketing policies must be adapted to local conditions.

International Sales and Business Development
Solicit new international clients while growing relationships with existing clients. Language proficiency, cultural sensitivity, and social negotiation skills are essential.

International Economics
Manage or consult on projects in international organizations, government agencies, or non-governmental organizations.

International Finance
Operate international aspects of the banking sector, including currency exchange or international payment methods for the bank's corporate clients involved in international business.

International Supply Chain Management, Transportation & Logistics
Take charge of delivering products from various points across the globe in a safe and efficient manner. This is a detail-and-customer-oriented career in a fast-paced, high-pressure work environment.

International Entrepreneurship
Manage operations in a small international firm, or launch your own born-global venture!
