The Center for Student Professional Development (CSPD) at the Fox School of Business provides customized career assistance to help you identify and achieve your career goals. Learn how to effectively showcase the competencies you’ve developed throughout your MBA program as you partner with the CSPD to take the next step on your career journey.

Professional development services include:

- Assessment resources to increase self-awareness and enhance personal development.
- Skill-building career development sessions.
- Access to industry research, resume feedback, and interview tutorial tools such as First Research, VMock, and Big Interview.
- Individualized resume review and impression management guidance for social professional networks such as LinkedIn.
- Credit-bearing professional development coursework.
- Affiliations with professional trade associations and preparation for national affinity conferences.
- Recruiting events with national and regional organizations.

Connect with CSPD corporate partners through:

- Abundant internship and full-time job opportunities via FoxNet and GradLeaders portals.
- Robust on-campus recruiting activities and points of contact with employers.
- Select alumni events for network-building opportunities and industry awareness.
- Year-round alumni engagement to assist with mock interviews, informational interviews, and case interview preparation.
