

Restaurants in Philadelphia

City Tap House

American

This New American tavern offers 60-plus craft beers & brick-oven pizzas, plus an outdoor terrace.

Where: The Radian, 3925 Walnut St,

Dim Sum House by Jane G's

Chinese

Atmospheric hangout with pool table & full bar serving Cantonese- & Shanghai-inspired dim sum.

Where: 3939 Chestnut St

Sabrina's Cafe

American Brunch

Relaxed New American cafe with a devoted following for its breakfast & brunch offerings.

Where: 227 N 34th St

Pod

Sushi & Pan Asian

A futuristic space with ever-changing colors is the scene for high-end Pan-Asian fare & sushi.

Where: 3636 Sansom St

CO-OP Restaurant & Lounge

American

Seasonal dishes, seafood & rotisserie items in a refined hotel setting open breakfast to dinner.

Where: 20 S 33rd St #1

Baby Blues BBQ

Barbeque

BBQ joint serving ribs & other meat-centric fare in a quirky space within a repurposed brownstone.

Where: 3402 Sansom St

Restaurants in Philadelphia

White Dog Cafe

American

Boisterous doggy-themed restaurant serving eclectic fare made with local & organic ingredients.

Where: 3420 Sansom St

Distrito

Mexican

Fork serves sophisticated New American cuisine served amid sleek modern decor. Open until 10:00pm.

Where: 3945 Chestnut St

Landmark Americana, University City

American

Collegians down beer & bar fare in a busy space with sports on TV & daily specials.

Where: 3333 Market Street

Cavanaugh's Restaurant & Sports Bar

American

Neighborhood saloon offering draft beer, weekend brunch, classic pub grub & college sports on TV.

Where: 119 S 39th St

Zavino

Italian

Industrial-chic offshoot of a popular local eatery spotlighting gourmet pizzas, Italian fare & wine.

Where: 3200 Chestnut St

Tipsy Bistro

American

A collaboration between owners and Chef Anh Vongbandith co-owner and founder of Das Good Inc. creates contemporary dishes in a warm, fun and inviting sports bar atmosphere.

Where: 3131 Walnut St

Activities in Philadelphia

The Liberty Bell Center

The Liberty Bell was originally cast in Great Britain and recast in 1753 in Philadelphia to adorn the State House. It was used to call the Pennsylvania Assembly to meetings. It was then adopted by abolitionists, suffragists, Civil Rights advocates, Native Americans, immigrants, war protestors and others as their symbol.

Where: N. 6th & Market Street

Museum of the American Revolution

The new museum is located three blocks from Independence Hall. The high-tech exploration into U.S history reveals the strategic wins, crushing losses and the personal and world-altering consequences of the war for We the People.

Where: 101 S. 3rd Street

Independence Hall

Rich in history, there is tons to explore at this UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is also part of the U.S. National Park Service and an Independence National Historical Park. The guided tour of Independence Hall, led by National Park rangers, begins in the courtroom where lawyers from opposing sides shared tables and law books.

Where: 520 Chestnut Street

Philadelphia Museum of Art & Rodin Museum

The vast collections of Renaissance, American and impressionist masterpieces make the Philadelphia Museum of Art one of the most important art museums in the country. Its Just up the Benjamin Franklin Parkway is the Rodin Museum, housing one of the largest public collections of the master's works outside of Paris.

Where: 2600 Benjamin Franklin Parkway

Activities in Philadelphia

The Franklin Institute

Lover of science? Check out the Franklin Institute! The Franklin Institute demonstrates the science involved in disciplines ranging from sports to space. In addition to nationally traveling shows, the museum includes hands-on exhibitions, such as the highly interactive Your Brain; the Fels Planetarium; the Tuttleman IMAX Theater; and the Joel N. Bloom Observatory.

Where: 222 N. 20th Street

Reading Terminal Market

Check out the oldest farmers market in America! There are shops for local produce, cheeses, desserts, restaurants, etc. The market is open 7 days a week, but the Amish vendors are selling their goods Tuesday - Saturday.

Where: 51 N. 12th Street

One Liberty Observation Deck

Even birds are envious of One Liberty Observation Deck. An entertaining video plays as the elevator zips visitors up to the 57th floor of One Liberty Place, where wrap-around, floor-to-ceiling windows reveal panoramic views. Interactive kiosks zoom in on Philadelphia landmarks and exhibits offer interesting history, sports and art tidbits that help form the fabric of Philadelphia.

Where: 1650 Market Street #5700

Race Street Pier

The upper terrace rises 12 feet toward the bridge and is paved with Trex, a sustainable, synthetic decking material made out of reclaimed plastic and wood. The promenade is connected to the lower terrace by a multi-tiered seating area, perfect for watching the tide roll in.

Where: Race Street & N. Columbus Boulevard